

Isaac Matus

479 Beacon Street, Boston, MA, 02115, -

imatus@berklee.edu

Profile

Versatile musician, composer, arranger and producer. Proficient in electronic music systems, guitar, traditional Colombian wind and percussion instruments

Work

Experience

Guitar teacher of two girls (ages 12 and 14). 2012-2013.

Internship at a Colombian Radio Station as a scriptwriter. 2013.

Worked in food service during High School. 2012- 2013.

Freelance producer, arranger, videographer and performer. 2013- Present.

Education

High School: Colegio Gimnasio Moderno. Bogotá, Colombia

College: Pontificia Universidad Javeriana, Bogotá, Colombia (One semester of composition major)

Berklee College of Music (expected graduation: May 2018)

Dual major in Contemporary Writing & Production/ Electronic Production & Design

Skills:

-Programming

-Sound Design

-Proficient in arranging and composing in the styles of: pops, rock, jazz, big band and various kinds of Latin American music.

-Advanced skills in music, audio and video editing software such as: Finale, Pro Tools, Logic, Ableton Live, Max/MSP and Premiere Pro.

Career Highlights and Awards:

-Played in multiple concerts in Colombia, winning contests and battles of bands.

- Played and recorded a video with Toto la Momposina, one of the best traditional music singers from Colombia at the Berklee Performance Centre in November 2015.

-Selected for the Dean's lists.

- Played in various recording sessions and student recitals at Berklee.

-Played and hosted several clinics on Colombian and Latin American Music at Berklee with guest artists such as successful Berklee alumni Gerogrio Uribe.

-Participated in various concerts at the BPC as an arranger and performer.

-Got selected to be the Musical Director for the Divas Latinas concert in April 20th/2017.

-Got selected to be part of the band that will represent Berklee in a concert in Colombia playing with top local artists like Carlos Vives and Toto la Momposina

Career Objectives: Becoming a successful producer, arranger, composer and sound designer.

Working in the industry of music for visual media like TV, Advertising, Documentaries etc.

Working on innovative ideas on combining latin American music with electronics & jazz and contemporary languages.

First Language: Spanish

Other languages: English

